"JACK THE CUTTER."

A Mysterious Man Who Delights In Destroying Harness.

Several times lately, some miscreant has stolen carriages or buggies from the front of the Central Union Church, and has disfigured the vehicles, and cut the harness. Another instance of this occurred last evening when the wagonette of Mrs. Forbes of the Lunalilo Home was taken out to Palama by a white man. Someone near the church saw him drive away, but did not suspect anything wrong until Mrs. Forbes began to inquire for her wagon.

Captain Klemme of the mounted police went out to Palama and found the horse hitched to a telephone post. The harness was cut and efforts had evidently been made to do as much damage as possible. When Captain Klemme arrived on the scene the man was still at work, but took to his heels as soon as he heard him coming. The wagonette was brought back to town.

What the object of this man could have been, beyond wanton mischief, is a mystery. If he is ever caught at his tricks he should be severely dealt with.

"5th. Labor.—We favor such legislation as will substitute American, Portuguese and other European immigration for Asiatic immigration, thus securing a class of immigrants for labor purposes which will ultimately be of permanent value to the country as settlers."
